

Some Quotes from Ron Paul

"If the justifications for war were wrong; If the war is going badly; If we can't afford the costs, both human and economic... If the reasons for staying are no more credible than the reasons for going; then why the dilemma? The American people have spoken, and continue to speak out against this war. So why not end it? How do we end it? Why not exactly the way we went in? We just marched in, and we can just march out."

"I believe our founding fathers had it right when they argued for peace and commerce between nations, and against entangling political and military alliances."

"No war should ever be fought without a declaration of war voted upon by the Congress, as required by the Constitution."

"A limited, constitutional government would not tempt special interests to buy the politicians who wield power."

"A perfect economic storm (is) facing America, caused by a federal government that spends, borrows, and prints so much money that our dollars are eroding in value at an alarming rate."

"Does the Constitution authorize... this law?"
